

CATAP Webinar Series

The Role of Perceived Personal Control in Assessing Risk

Guest Speaker:

Mr. Glenn French
Canadian Initiative
on Workplace Violence

Key Points:

- The evolution of workplace violence
- Emerging challenges faced by employers
- The relevance of Perceived Personal Control
- Presenting a screening criteria for violent risk

Thursday
May 28

11a.m – 12 p.m. MDT

Cost: $39/member
$59/non-member

Register Online @

Register Here

Every organization, regardless of the individual sector or jurisdiction, has a duty to accommodate employees in particular circumstances. Failure to do so can result in unnecessary litigation, diminished employee engagement, and the erosion of an organization's reputation.

Difficulties arise when an employee behaves in a threatening or aggressive manner. Employers have a growing responsibility to assess and manage these potential risks. This webinar will focus on examining the important psychological construct of Perceived Personal Control ( PPC), also known as Locus of Control.

- ✓ Live events held monthly.
- ✓ Free 24/7 on-demand viewing.
- ✓ New topics each month
- ✓ Participate from work, home or on the go!
- ✓ View on PC, Mac, iPad, iPhone, or Android.
- ✓ Select Webinar completion may count toward CATAP certification.

WWW.CATAP.CA/WEBINARS

